

Anvil Knitwear

How We're Helping the Planet

Our dream is to leave behind a planet that's safe and clean for our children

AKH, S.A. Green Valley Industrial Park

Organic Cotton

1. Anvil was recently ranked the 6th largest organic program in the world by the Organic Exchange
2. Anvil is the largest purchaser of domestic organic cotton
3. Anvil supports transitional cotton farmers

Waste

A. Solids

1. Goal
2. Recycle

B. Water

1. Activated Sludge Waste Water Treatment

2. Nike's Considered Water Program

Dyes and Chemicals

1. Oeko Certification

2. GOTS Certified Dyes

3. Restricted Substance List

A. AAFA

B. Nike

Energy Conservation

A. Water

1. Dye Process Review
2. Re-use
3. Low Liquor Ratio Dye Machines
4. Meters
5. Solenoids on Pads
6. Pressure Reducing Valves

Continued

Energy Conservation

B. Steam

1. Biomass Boiler
2. Steam as by Product of Cogeneration
3. Moisture Monitors on Dryers

C. Electricity

1. Chiller Temp Control
2. T-8 Fluorescent Lights with Electronic Ballast
3. Monthly Audits by Finished Units

Carbon Footprint

- Greenhouse Gas Impact Assessment – May, 2009
- Reduce Carbon Footprint 10% - 2010
- Reduce Solid Waste 5% - 2010
- Reduce Water Consumption 5% - 2010

WRAPe Certification

Worldwide Responsible Accredited Production (WRAP) announced that Anvil Knitwear is the first company worldwide to receive the organization's new WRAPe certificate for its textile mill located in Honduras.

Challenges

- A. Private Label
- B. Supplier Transparency
- C. Monitoring Changes

